

HASSANA HUSSAMI ZU'BI

(Of Counsel) D.E.A. Paris II Sorbonne. (Former Judge).

EDUCATION

- 1967 French Baccalaureat - Philosophie
Lebanese Baccalaureat - Philosophie.
- 1971 St. Joseph University (Jesuites) Beirut
- Licence in French Law
 - Licence in Lebanese Law
 - Licence in Political Science
- Feb. 1973 University of Paris II - Pantheon Sorbonne. Masters Degree in Private Law (D.E.A. Droit Prive General).
- March 1973 Participated and succeeded in the completion to enter the Institute of Judicial Studies in Beirut. Appointed as a Judge under training by Presidential Decree. One of the first women out-of-five to join the Institute of Judicial Studies.
- 1975 Diploma of the Institute of Judicial Studies in Beirut. Promoted to Judge by Presidential Decree.
- 1976 Trained at the Institute of Judicial Studies in Paris, France.

CAREER

- 1977 - 1981 Judge at the Litigation Department at the Ministry of Justice in Beirut, Lebanon.
- 1981 - 1986 Judge at the Department of Legislation and Counseling at the Ministry of Justice, Beirut.
- 1986 - 1989 Appointed as Counsellor Member of the Court of Appeal of Beirut.
- 1989 - 1994 Promoted to President of the Court of 1st Instance of Beirut - Civil and Property Cases.
The first Lebanese woman to be appointed as Court President in the history of the Country.
- 1994 - Present Acting as Counsel to Hatim Zu'bi Law Firm in matters relating to French, Lebanese and Bahraini Law.